Fee and Parking Reduction for the Los Angeles Chapter of the Association for India's Development's Cultural Celebration

The Los Angeles Chapter of the Association for India's Development (AID) is a non-profit organization working at the grassroots level to promote sustainable development in India. AID works directly with non-government organizations that are doing fieldwork in India in the areas of education, health, women's empowerment, social justice and natural resources conservation.

AID plans to celebrate Holi, the Festival of Colors, at Will Rogers State Beach on March 22, 2014 from 11:00AM – 3:00PM. Holi is one of the most important Indian cultural festivals. AID organizers anticipate approximately 350 people from both Indian and non-Indian origin to come together to celebrate this occasion.

I THEREFORE MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Reduce the permit fee to $50.00, excluding the cost of liability insurance, and reduce the parking fee to $2.00 per vehicle for approximately 150 vehicles at Will
